HATTIE LEE GLEICHENHAUS -
President 2001-2002

"During this week of the summit on voluntarism, I am reminded of the dedication and support of the many service-oriented members of this special organization who have made such an impact. By giving of their time and talents, they have ensured another banner year in support to the hospice services for VNA and Hospice of South Texas."

- July 1, 1996—Merger of Hospice San Antonio with Visiting Nurse Association to become VNA and Hospice of South Texas

- Fall Coffee at the home of Dianne Azar "Theresa Meyers and Fred Hines reviewed the history of both VNA of South Central Texas and Hospice San Antonio and explained why the organizations merged."

- 1996 Poinsettia Ball chair Winifred Cocke; net proceeds $70,000, with more than 600 in attendance

"The ballroom turned into a magical wonderland and sea of red poinsettias, plaid ribbons and dramatic wrought iron candelabra. The leadership of Winifred Cocke and Tookie Spoor is appreciated."

- Friends members helped VNA and Hospice deliver poinsettia plants to individuals and corporations

- Spring Lecture "The San Antonio Garden Center was the site for the spring program on pain management with speaker Dr. Dan Brookoff from Memphis."

- Fiesta Fancies hosted by Esther Vexler
- Annual meeting at home of Camilla and William Parker

"We conclude our year in the home of Camilla and Bill Parker. With a membership of 550 supporters, we continue to bring attention to the sensitive and outstanding services of hospice."

and Hospice of South Texas

"My heartfelt thanks to the board and staff and to all the members who have said 'yes.' Ours is an exemplary organization and could serve as an example of what can happen when caring individuals work together to serve others."

Hattie Lee Gleichenhaus

GRETCHEN BEALER - President 2002-2003

We began our year with a most enjoyable coffee in the home of Diana Carroll-Wirth. Mary Ann Osborne, Marie Smith and Lucy Wilson mustered many women who provided delicious food."

- Fall Coffee at the home of Diana Carroll-Wirth

- Friends are given responsibility to coordinate and manage the 1997 Poinsettia Ball (Tenth Anniversary)

"December is synonymous with poinsettias, and the 1997 Poinsettia Ball is synonymous with the prime social event of the holiday season. Tookie Spoor, assisted by Ann McMullan, headed a large committee that was responsible for a magical evening that raised a record $79,000. Attendance was just under 700, making this one of the largest social events of the year."

- Friends assisted with Poinsettia Sale

- Spring Lecture

"Carol Canty oversaw the details of this fascinating program on 'Cultural Responses to Grief' and again joined with the Nursing School at Incarnate Word, led by Jennifer Cook, to educate the community."

- Fiesta Fancies at Esther Vexler's home raised $1,000

- Annual meeting at home of Harriett and Doug Raney

"This annual meeting is always a favorite wrap up of the year's activities in Friends. We will present a check for $10,000 to VNA and Hospice of South Texas. Ginger Cave, Gail Harrell and Jennifer Perloff, staff members, are very important in helping Friends succeed. Having their constant support makes the role of leadership a joy."

- 411 Members

- By-laws changes Article VI, Article XI, and Article XIV

- $100,000 in donations to hospice

"I thank the board for tremendous reinforcement and hard work on behalf of Friends. Serving as president has been enjoyable and challenging. Being surrounded by such talented people who care and who give."

Gretchen Bealer
